Nineteen grand jurors will take the oath of office on July 1, 2022 for a one-year term.

The role of a Grand Jury differs substantially from that of a trial jury, it is a fulltime assignment. About 80% of the Orange County Grand Jury's time is spent in its civil watchdog role, investigating local government agencies. In the Grand Jury's criminal role, it participates in some criminal indictment and investigation hearings, not jury trials. Grand Jury proceedings are closed to the public.
